RED BROOK HARBOR YACHT CLUB

From the Commodore

Paul Ketchum
Bald Eagle

Except for members heading south, the time has come to haul our boats and cover them in anticipation of another snowy winter. The club has had another successful season of cookouts, rendezvous, and cruises. Over 240 boats signed up for one or more of RBHYC events this season. We had two great cruises—Len planned and led us south to Long Island Sound and Chuck took us on a clockwise cruise around Cape Cod Bay. Robin and I enjoyed both and discovered many new interesting harbors between Long Island and Gloucester. The six rendezvous in local waters attracted between 9 and 24 boats. Many thanks to the hosts for their efforts in finding moorings and organizing activities ashore.

The annual meeting on December 3 at the Fireside Grill in Middleboro is the last event of the year. Robin and I hope you can all attend and enjoy the music, John Gould's presentation on the "Keepers of Boston Lighthouse," reports from the officers, and an early glimpse of our plans for 2006. Thanks for everyone's participation in RBHYC events during the year—see you at the annual meeting.

Paul
